PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear San Diego Region AACA Members;

This has been a bumpy road to try to schedule an event at a local Mall or other large venue. As the e-blast mentioned, Parkway Plaza in El Cajon was on, then off permanently. So we contacted acquaintances who owned a restaurant in the Clairemont Town Square. They have been holding evening events with a band and everything. This seemed like a done deal, we provided everything they wanted and requested. It was postponed until early April, and then cancelled! Very frustrating. Brad and I are looking to limit our focus on just small AACA only events instead of trying for these larger ones, where more folks can participate. We are hoping that our members will come out and participate. I know that Ron Walling is planning 2 events this spring.

Until then, I look forward to seeing you on the Zoom Meeting on April 5th.

Happy Motoring and stay safe.

-- Tom McIlravy

While Tom and Brad could not get cooperation for a car gathering, Betty and Daryl Holmes figured out the ultimate solution; celebrate Daryl's 85th Birthday with family, friends, and your own car gathering!

Way to go Holmes family, and happy birthday daryl!

Many of us remember Dave and Cindy Keetch. It is with sadness we report the passing of Cindy. She and Dave were enthusiastic members enjoying their Pontiacs, Thunderbird, and Corvette. Cindy was always exceedingly active in managing the Chicken Fest and working the booth at the Big 3 swap meet. Our sincere condolences to Dave.
